

JUMPING CLUB DAY

GEOFF QUINLAN

Brook Farm, Radwinter

Saturday 23rd January 2010

Geoff is a BHSI and an experience BSJA course builder; from this angle he can give technical advice on how to ride to a fence. He has many years experience, including teaching riders and horses just entering the discipline to those competing at affiliated show jumping competitions. Last time Geoff taught for the club he was very popular and was enjoyed by all that attended.

Sessions are 1 hour long, with 4 riders per session (or 45 mins with 3 riders). We anticipate the first session will start around 10 am, but this may vary depending on numbers. Please state on your entry if you have a particular time request.

Jumping club day sessions with Geoff will cost £15.00 per rider (£20.00 for non-members), the arena hire costs are subsidised by the Riding Club.

Venue: Brook Farm Equestrian Ctr, Radwinter, CB10 2TH. The sessions will be held in an indoor arena.
