SENIOR QUADRILLE TEAMS

Contact: Suzannah Engelmann (tel: 01799 527182)

GENERAL:

- There is no one person that puts together a SWDRC quadrille team. Generally a group of people who all wish to compete as a team at the selection trial (usually held second weekend in October at Addington) get together and organise themselves. If you would like to know which other members are interested in forming a team, please contact the membership secretary who can provide you with details.
- If you are seriously considering putting together a quadrille, please let Team Manager (Suzannah Engelmann tel: 01799 527182) know well in advance of the competition & keep her informed, so that the committee has an idea of how many teams are interested in competing.
- All entries to the selection trial can only be made through a SWDRC Team Manager.
- Your horse/pony needs to have a certain disposition towards working with other animals.

COSTS INVOLVED:

- Please be aware that a sacrifice of a lot of personal time and expense is required to put together a team. Putting together the music, practices and making the costumes takes an enormous amount of time and dedication. Unless you have the time and dedication to follow through with all the elements we would recommend against entering this competition.
- All practice and travel costs for practices and to any competitions must be paid for by the individual. Also, stabling at the selection trial (should it be required) must be paid for by the individual.
- If a team puts itself forward and is fortunate enough to have a donation made by the Club towards their costumes but does not compete at the selection trial without good reason, then the SWDRC will retract any form of payment towards the costumes. Any costs for costumes can be reclaimed after the selection trial. No monies will be distributed before the selection trial. Please refer to any committee member on how to reclaim costs.
- The entry fee to the selection trial (approx £50) may be paid, in part, by the SWDRC (depending upon the number of teams wishing to enter), a monetary contribution by each team will also be required.

SPECIFIC RULES FOR BRITISH RIDING CLUBS' QUADRILLE CHAMPIONSHIP:

- The Quadrille is a senior competition. Four teams in total will be selected to compete at the Final.
- Only one rider in a Quadrille team may have been placed first, second or third in a Dressage competition held under FEI rules.
- One member of the team competitors must be a current music member of British Dressage. The suitability of the music to the display will be taken into account. The movements will be designed by the team.
- Max time allowed will be 5 mins from the line-up and salute at the commencement of the quadrille to the finish and salute at the end. An additional 60 secs (max) "introduction/warm-up lap" is allowed from the moment the first horse enters the arena until all four horses line-up to give the starting salute.
- The Quadrille must be performed in an arena of 20m x 60m & designed on the basis that the entrance to the arena will be at "A".
- Method of Judging: Appearance 20 mks/Content of Programme 20 mks/Performance 20 mks/General Artistic Impression 60 mks
- The Quadrille is a display of horsemanship that tells a story, set to music and it should be a delight to watch. Good horsemanship - in the widest sense - is more important than pure theatre and the widest latitude is allowed in designing the patterns performed. All four riders must play an active part, but one or more members of the team may engage in some movements not done by the others.
