

ROS BLACKMORE POLEWORK CLINIC

Wednesday 16th May

at St Aylotts, Saffron Walden

Lessons will be 1 hour in groups of 3 and will be £27.50 per person.

Ros Blackmore is totally passionate about helping people to achieve their riding dreams - be it hacking out confidently on their own, or their first jumping lesson (at whatever age!), or competing in affiliated events of all levels. Qualifying as a Master Practitioner of NLP (Neuro Linguistic Programming) was a huge turning point for Ros, as it totally changed the way she felt about her riding, and therefore the results she got from her riding. She began teaching and running NLP workshops, as she wanted to be able to help others realise that they too can change their riding, improve their competition results, get rid of competition nerves - or just actually enjoy their riding without their own constant criticisms and doubts.
