The talented young Swede Ludwig Svennerstål confirmed at the London Olympics 2012 that he meant business, when he as the youngest rider at the Games, at 21 years old, qualified to compete in the individual finals with his Hanoverian gelding Shamwari. In 2013 Ludwig and the Swedish team took a historic team silver at the European Championships on home turf in Malmö

Ludwig brought his top horses Shamwari and Alexander to England and trained for three years with Chris Bartle, British International event and dressage rider, winner of Badminton Horse Trials in 1998 and European Team Gold Medallist in 1997. With the guidance of Chris, Ludwig won his place on the Swedish Team who finished in 4th place at the Olympic Games in London 2012 and a Team Silver medal at the European Championships 2013.
